

Michigan health agency launches online portal

The Michigan Department of Community Health has launched a mobile app and online portal to boost connectivity between patients and providers. Read The Full Article